4. The small print - Disclaimer

I/we acknowledge that whilst care is taken with information or advice issued in the newsletter or other publications of the Gay & Lesbian Task Force (South Australia) Inc. ("the Association"), or given otherwise by members, officers or the Association's migration adviser, neither the Association nor any member or officer can be held responsible for the accuracy or applicability to any particular case of any such information or advice. I/we acknowledge that migration policy, legislation and interpretations in case-law are constantly changing and that it is my/our responsibility to verify any matter that is of importance to me/us, including the obtaining of legal advice where necessary. Under no circumstances is anything written or said by the Association or any member or officer or the migration adviser to be understood as legal advice. I/we acknowledge that agreement by me/us to receive any information or advice from the Association or any member or officer or the migration adviser is understood to constitute acceptance of these terms and I/we agree to indemnify the Association and any member or officer from any claim or claims howsoever arising from the receipt of such advice. I/we acknowledge that these terms apply to information and advice supplied both before and after the signing hereof. If this acknowledgment is signed by one of us on behalf of joint members, the signatory warrants that he/she has the authority to bind the other member to these terms and agrees to indemnify the Association and any member or officer from any claim by the other member.
